

■ MENU

- Home
- About
 - About Their Turn
 - About Animal Rights
- Issues
 - Food
 - Clothes
 - Entertainment
 - Experimentation
 - Companion Animals
 - Wildlife
- Contact

October 6, 2026

Advocates Rally at City Hall in New York to Demand End to Illegal Live Animal Market

December 4, 2018 by Donny Moss — Leave a Comment

Share

Post

The News

Public health and animal rights advocates in NYC staged a rally at City Hall on November 27th to demand that the NYPD and Department of Health enforce the 15 laws that are broken each year at the live animal markets that are opened during Kaporos, a ritual sacrifice of 60,000 chickens that takes place before Yom Kippur, the Jewish day of atonement.

Advocates Rally at City Hall in New York to Dem

Their Turn

Watch on

“Mayor de Blasio instructs his health commissioner to defend the health code violations and his police commissioner to aid and abet in the crimes because he wants to maintain favor with the powerful Orthodox voting bloc that commits them,” said Jessica Hollander, an organizer in the grass roots effort to stop the illegal slaughter. “If any other group were breaking laws, the NYPD would be arresting, not assisting, them.”

NYC Mayor Bill de Blasio instructs the NYPD to help facilitate the slaughter of 60,000 chickens on public streets in spite of the 15 city and state laws that are violated.

Nora Constance Marino, an attorney who has represented The Alliance to End Chickens as Kaporos in litigation against the City, told demonstrators at the rally that the legal battle will continue, in spite of a setback at the NY State Court of Appeals in which six judges ruled that they did not have the power to compel city agencies to enforce their own laws.

During Kaporos, which takes place over the course of several days, ultra-Orthodox communities truck thousands of crates of chickens into the city and kill them in approximately 30 makeshift slaughterhouses that they erect on public streets without permits.

Practitioners of Kaporos erect approximately 30 makeshift slaughterhouses on public streets without permits. (Unparalleled Suffering Photography)

“If I wanted to host a block party, I would need to need to fill out an application and get approval from multiple city agencies. It’s a rigorous process” said Jill Carnegie, the Campaigns Director with the Alliance to End Chickens as Kaporos. “Yet Kaporos practitioners can, without a permit, build illegal slaughterhouses and kill tens of thousands of animals on residential streets with the financial and logistical support of the NYPD.”

Advocates argue that the city is aiding and abetting in the crimes by not only dispatching a massive number of police officers but also providing Kaporos practitioners with barricades to cordon off public streets, floodlights and traffic cones in which the chickens are bled out into the streets.

An estimated 60,000 chickens are intensively confined in crates without food or water for up to several days leading up to the Kaporos chicken swinging ritual and sacrifice.

In 2015, residents in the neighborhoods contaminated by the blood and body parts of chickens killed during Kaporos hired a toxicologist to investigate the impact of the waste on their health. In his report, Dr. Michael McCabe concluded that Kaporos “constitutes a dangerous condition and poses a significant public health hazard.” Advocates have, on multiple occasions, sent the toxicology report to Dr. Demetre Daskalakis, the head of Infectious Disease Control at the NYC Department of Health, and to Drs. Oxiris Barbot and Mary Bassett, the City’s current and former health commissioners, but they have refused to acknowledge it. Advocates speculate that acknowledging the risks outlined in this “damning” report would put them in a position to have to take action to prevent a potential disease outbreak.

Robson Forensic

Engineers, Architects, Scientists & Fire Investigators

January 17th 2016

Nora Constance Marino, Esq.
Law Office of Nora Constance Marino
175 East Shore Road Suite #230
Great Neck, NY 11023

Re: The Alliance to End Chickens as Kaporos Rina Deych et al.

Dear Attorney Marino:

On Monday September 21st 2015, I conducted an investigation of Kaporos activities taking place at five separate representative sites in the Borough Park and Crown Heights districts of Brooklyn, New York. The five sites were located in the vicinity of the following addresses:

- 1) 1725 43rd St. near the corner of Dahill Rd.
- 2) 1417 50th St. near the corner of 14th Ave.
- 3) 1413 45th St. between 14th Ave. and 15th Ave.
- 4) 298 -338 Crown St. (parking lot behind Associated Beth Rivkah Schools on Montgomery St.)
- 5) 1414 President St. near the corner of Kingston Ave.

Conclusion

Consistent with the findings from my May 26th 2015 affidavit, the first-hand observations that I made during my September 21st 2015 Kaporos inspection as well as the photographs that I took and test results confirming high bacterial contamination and unsanitary conditions confirm and strengthen my opinion that within a reasonable degree of professional certainty the Kaporos activities taking place in the subject locations constitute a dangerous condition and pose a significant public health hazard.

Michael J. McCabe, Jr., Ph.D., DABT, ATS

Mayor de Blasio's Health Commissioners have refused to address a toxicology report that outlines the risk posed by the mass slaughter of 60,000 animals on public streets during Kaporos.

"I got violently sick. I had very bad E. coli for weeks," said Kurt Andernach, the Director of And-Hof Animal Sanctuary who took in some of the chickens rescued during Kaporos. "When you have high concentrations of sick birds, it's just a matter of time before something catastrophic happens."

Filed under: Food

Tagged with: Alliance to End Chickens as Kaporos, chickens, Kaporos

You May Also Like:

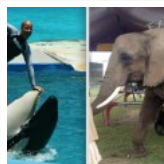

[As Carriage
Horses Fight](#)

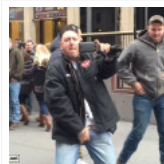

[Animal
Advocates Stage](#)

[At Press
Conference,](#)

[Advocates for
Lolita & Nosey](#)

[Bull Riding Fans
Clash with](#)

Comments via Facebook

TheirTurn.net Comments

1. Jews United against Propoganda says:

December 5, 2018 at 12:44 pm

"Exposing animal torture and advocating on behalf of the victims are not acts of anti-Semitism, even if those committing the crimes (Kaporos violates 15 city and laws) are Jewish"

Yes you are correct with advocating is not Anti-semetic....but putting up articles like this saying Orthodox Jews are part of a conspiracy with Government officials sure is Anti-semetic. There are no City or State laws that ban this practice. It's your opinion.

BTW using coins isn't mandatory either....it's called a tradition; because your brand of Judiasm doesn't teach it doesn't mean others can't.

2. Jews United against Propoganda says:

December 5, 2018 at 12:40 pm

"Exposing animal torture and advocating on behalf of the victims are not acts of anti-Semitism, even if those committing the crimes (Kaporos violates 15 city and laws) are Jewish"

Yes you are correct with that...but putting up articles like this saying Orthodox Jews are part of a conspiracy with Government officials sure is.

BTW using coins isn't mandatory either....it's called a tradition; because your brand of Judiasm doesn't teach it doesn't mean others can't.

3. Donny Moss says:

December 5, 2018 at 12:13 pm

As you probably already know, many of the public health and animal welfare advocates working to protect the animals from the starvation, thirst, intensive confinement and physical abuse to which they are subjected are Jewish. I am Jewish, and my rabbi taught my congregation to be a voice for the most vulnerable among us. Exposing animal torture and advocating on behalf of the victims are not acts of anti-Semitism, even if those committing the crimes (Kaporos violates 15 city and laws) are Jewish. Jewish scripture does not mandate the use of live animals as Kaporos, which is why so many practitioners swing coins around their heads instead of chickens. God would not want his creatures to be tortured at all, much less in his name.

4. Jews United against Propoganda says:

December 5, 2018 at 12:06 pm

This is Anti-semetic Propoganda that used to be around in Germany during WW2. There are no laws banning this practice and has nothing to do with a voting Bloc. Shame on the commenters and the fool who runs this website.

5. Nancy Beavers says:

December 5, 2018 at 6:34 am

Ritual murder, or animal sacrifice, to get yourself absolved of your sins is completely absurd, anachronistic, and out of touch with the whole point of religious belief. Endeavor to live a sin-free life or simply to sin less; but if you can't, then atone for your own transgression(s), ask for forgiveness, resolving never to commit such acts again. Do not believe you are washing away your sins through murdering animals.

I, like the chickens, do not believe in the animal sacrifice called for in the bible. Stop this killing on the street and do not take it elsewhere. Join the 21st Century.

Thanks for the quotations, ahimsa42.

6. Lucy Monte says:

December 4, 2018 at 7:52 pm

I witnessed this in person, helping those chickens. It was truly a horrifying experience. NYPD wanted to help, they protected us activists. The birds were starved, in burning hot sun, no water or shade. There were dead and dying birds in the crate. It was horrific.

7. ahimsa42 says:

December 4, 2018 at 7:04 pm

"In their behavior toward creatures, all men are Nazis. Human beings see oppression vividly when they're the victims. Otherwise they victimize blindly and without a thought." — Isaac Bashevis Singer

"Auschwitz begins wherever someone looks at a slaughterhouse and thinks: they're only animals." -Theodor W. Adorno

"We have enslaved the rest of the animal creation, and have treated our distant cousins in fur and feathers so badly that beyond doubt, if they were able to formulate a religion, they would depict the devil in human form." — William Ralph Inge

8. ahimsa42 says:

December 4, 2018 at 6:41 pm

"And what a waste of life when there are so many people starving, these poor animals are just thrown away it's diabolical."

wait-what? are you suggesting that it would be any better if the helpless victims mutilated corpses were consumed? if so you are really missing the true message of compassion and non-violence for ALL species.

9. Zizi says:

December 4, 2018 at 2:56 pm

And a majority of Jews who oppose this blood-letting are paying for it as well!!!

But before we get too high and mighty about those "awful Jews", let's remember that MILLIONS of turkeys, chickens, geese, pigs are cruelly raised and slaughtered for Christmas and Thanksgiving dinners which are indulged in by Christians and people of every faith. That the sacrifice of millions of animals takes place daily in slaughter houses all around this country, just for those burgers, bacon, and chicken nuggets and it is hidden from the public in disease-ridden, hideous sheds and factory farms.

And lest we forget:

BLOOD IN THE STREETS THROUGHOUT THE MOSLEM WORLD!

Eid Al-Adha animal sacrifice festival sees roads turn red with blood as cows are beheaded..

In the Islamic ‘Festival of Sacrifice’ millions of goats, cows, camels and sheep are slaughtered in the streets to honour the ultimate sacrifice Abraham was willing to make in the Koran – murdering his own son. Muslims all over the world are celebrating Eid al-Adhar – ‘Greater Eid’ – the tenth day of the holy month, coinciding with the Hajj pilgrimage from Medina to Mecca. Streets across the world will be adorned in the red of blood today as Muslims celebrate the ‘Festival of Sacrifice’ Eid al-Adha

Gruesome photos depict the ritual bloodshed of animals in the name of a global Islamic tradition that has been branded “cruel and abhorrent”. Beheaded cows and goats leave streams of blood as they are dragged through the streets of countries including Pakistan, Iran, Bangladesh and Malaysia to the applause of worshipers observing an annual holy rite of passage. Children stand as spectators to huge beasts making a last and desperate bid for freedom before falling under the bloody blades of butchers. The custom is undertaken to replicate the willingness of the prophet Abraham to murder his son Ishmael (Isaac in Christianity) under Allah’s orders.”

We are ALL guilty, if we are still consuming animals and allowing others to do the killing, for whatever reason!

10. Linda Wilson says:

December 4, 2018 at 1:26 pm

And what a waste of life when there are so many people starving, these poor animals are just thrown away it’s diabolical.

11. Karen Hetherington says:

December 4, 2018 at 1:22 pm

Those Jews are the most anti-life people on the planet. They are being permitted to engage in a public slaughter of 60,000 chickens on tax payer streets???? And with that amount of suffering and serious potential of disease outbreak to the people who are paying for it???? Mass killing, intentional starvation of the animals, blood letting, and suffering for everyone to see? All for their religion?? And many other people who are not Jewish are paying for it???? Unbelievable!!!

Comments are closed.

Follow Their Turn

• Follow @theirturn

•
•
•

Subscribe to our newsletter

Recent Comments

- Are We Afraid of Our Own Compassion? - Hadar Aviram on Antisemitism in the Animal Rights Movement
- Farm Animals for Animal Rights! on TheirTurn Has Launched VegMediaWatch. Please Join Us There.
- Teresa Russo on TheirTurn Has Launched VegMediaWatch. Please Join Us There.
- Diplomi_nnEi on Despite Temporary Closures, Avian Flu Spreads in NYC’s Live Animal Markets
- CHRISTINE PHILLIPS on New Watchdog Group Combats Anti-Vegan Bias in the Mainstream Media

Food

TheirTurn Has Launched VegMediaWatch. Please Join Us There.

New Watchdog Group Combats Anti-Vegan Bias in the Mainstream Media

Despite Temporary Closures, Avian Flu Spreads in NYC's Live Animal Markets

NYC Lawmaker Visits Notorious Live Animal Markets

Court Dismisses D.C. Restaurant Owner's Lawsuit Against Anti-Foie Gras Activists

Clothes

Animal Rights Activists Protest Adidas Board Member Jackie Joyner-Kersey

Kangaroo Skin Protests Against Adidas Spread Globally

Anti-Kangaroo Leather Activists Disrupt Adidas Launch Party

NYPD Arrests Spouse of Marc Jacobs VP during Anti-Fur Protest

Activists in 20 Cities Protest Adidas Over Kangaroo Slaughter

Experimentation

After Pressure Campaign from Animal Rights Groups, HSUS Commits $20 million to its Chimpanzee Sanctuary

HSUS's Financial and Ethical Obligations to the Chimpanzees at Project Chimps and the New Iberia Research Center

Activists Erect Billboard in Georgia to Expose Cruelty at Project Chimps

Animal Rights Activists Nationwide Protest HSUS over Conditions at Project Chimps

Chimps at Humane Society Sanctuary Barely Get Outside. What Happens Next?

Entertainment

Is NYC Banning Horse-Drawn Carriages?

Bull Riding Fans Confront Animal Rights Protesters at Madison Square Garden

Anti-Trophy Hunting Activists Protest Trump Brothers and Safari Club International

Animal Rights Activists and Bull Riding Fans Face Off During Protests at Madison Square Garden

What Happened to Carolyn Maloney's Pandas?

Companion Animals

What Happened to Virginia Chipurnoi?

Updates on Campaign to Help Animals Being Warehoused at Humane Society of NY

NYC Lawmakers Encourage Humane Society of New York to Relocate Animals

Humane Society of NY Announces Renovations to Reopen to the Public After Falsely Attributing Years-long Closure to COVID

Animal Rights Activists Protest Humane Society of New York Veterinarians Over Animal Warehousing

