Rav Mazuz: Use Money For Kaparos Instead Of Chickens

Speaking at a weekly shiur, Rosh Yeshivat Kisei Rachamim HaGaon HaRav Meir Mazuz Shlita spoke out regarding the minhag of Kaporos before Yom Kippur, stating that in the modern era it is preferable to give tzedaka instead of kaporos.

The rav continued to explain: "I used to use chickens, but it made a mess in the home and sometimes it died on the way. It was not simple. Hence, I did hataras nedarim and began with using money. Giving money is preferable anyway, since it is not dirty, and we eliminate the issue brought up by the Ben Ish Chai, that a chicken sees the other being slaughtered and becomes fearful and its lung collapses."

He added, addressing the matter of cruelty to animals. "They take the chicken for the poor and the poor person says: They already brought me 100 chickens. Where will I put them all? I do not have a large freezer. If I keep them a bit here and there, then we can use it for Sukkos or Chanukah, during Cheshvan, Teves and Shevat and even have some remaining for Purim. This is simcha for the poor man? In addition, at times, the chicken is in a hot vehicle for hours and this is truly 'tzar baalei chaim'", he concluded.

No Copy Has Appeared for Sale in Decades: An Extraordinary 1485 Hebrew Book

An extraordinary, highly significant, and nearly complete copy of the very first book published in the Spanish town of Hajar. Printed in 1485, a mere seven years before the tragic expulsion of Jews from Spain, this volume is one of the ultimate achievements of early Hebrew typography.

says:

I truly respect this gadol, having learnt many of his seforim. but have a few ????? on the ravs words

❖ I used to use chickens, but it made a mess in the home and sometimes it died on the way. It was not simple. Hence, I did hataras nedarim and began with using money. Giving money is preferable anyway, since it is not dirty, and we eliminate the issue brought up by the Ben Ish Chai, that a chicken sees the other being slaughtered and becomes fearful and its lung collapses. ❖

1) 90% of the people (my estimation) go to a kaparah centers, that too eliminates the problem of dirtying up the house, and dying on the way, left in the hot car and so forth.

2) the minhag is from the times of the geonim, practiced through the ages, and endorsed by the arizal, so how could you say that money is preferable. Mabe the rav means for sfardim.

3) the issue of ????? [its in shulchan aruch, and the problem that arises at kaparah shelugen is mentioned by the ?? ?????] is easily avoided by having the shochem facing the other way, as i saw in the mentioned centers.

4) there is no mekudot being overwhelmed eating ????? is obvious correctly, and the rav is a thousand years.

In short, do it right, and you don't get into problems.

says:

Firstly this is a century old minhag and should not be swept away just like this in public to please some antisemitic animal rights activists.

Secondly most of us don't take the chicken home, we perform the minhag in a public place and often the chicken is being shechted then and there.

Unfortunately there are plenty of aniyim who are happy with a chicken for Yom tov there is no need to give a 100 to one family. Alternatively you can give it to a Yeshiva or other Moisad where talmidim/talmidos are classed as aniyim.

says:

@thinker123, @DavidtheKanoi I think all of you guys are completely underestimating this Gadol... When A Gadol BeTorah speaks its never wise to dismiss his opinion so easily...

First off none of you mentioned that its a straight up Shulchan Aruch 601:1 and there Rav Kairo says straight out not to do it. Granted the Rema disagrees but still...

@ DavidtheKanoi You say it is an ancient minhag and you cant mevateil it? The Kaf HaChaim quotes the Ramban who says Kaparot is no good because of Darchei Emori! Has VeSHalom to underestimate the words of such a Gadol. Also the Rashba in ???' ??' ???' explicitly says that he refrained from this minhag because of Darchei Emori.

@DavidtheKanoi Animal rights?

you are using a fallacy in logic called straw man. Rav Mazuz is using the Torah for his reasoning and nowhere does he talk about animal right groups! By you adding that, you are attacking a reasoning that he never claimed! Hence straw man.

Saar Baalei Haim according to most poskim is an issur from the Torah.

Even the Hatam Sofer would have a problem with this if there is no Toelet, and a lot of the chicken meat is wasted.

Lastly @DavidtheK

says:

I respect and listen to Rav Mazuz.

Giving money to poor sound wiser and much better. Maybe the poor need money to eat bread or need medicine or need clothes for his children or need money for his basic needs for survival or which works better for him/her to receive money rather than chickens for our sins! Maybe he prefer money something else rather than chicken. Torturing chickens before killing them and add to our sins or is it purifying us from sins by give suffering to chickens hours in a hot car and in closed boxes and terrifying a poor thing and then kill it and seeing the other chickens are killed, poor things?! It also stop PETA and other animal activists to comment anything against us.

I agree with respected brave Rav Mazuz

Thank G-d for Rav Mazuz. May G-d bless him for guiding us to do right thing

this new year 5779

Wish you all a good and blessed new year 5779.
